MONEY, STOCKS AND GRAIN

Jay Gould's Death Again Reported, and a Raid on His Shares Followed.

Gold Exports Will Likely Begin Again Saturday-At Indianapolis Ceresis Remained Nearly the Same, with Little Activity.

THE BOND MARKET.

Railroad Issues as a Rule Firm with Sales Reaching $1,231,000. At New York, yesterday, money on call was firm, ranging from 3 to 6, per cent. the last loan being made at 3, closing offered at 3.

Prime mercantile paper, 5@6 per cent. Sterling exchange was firm, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.85 1/2 @4.8534 for sixty-days and $4.88@4.884 for demand. The total sales of stocks were 414,000 shares, including the following: Atchison, 17,695; Chicago Gas, 16,212; Erie, 12,625; Lake Shore, 2,550; Louisville & Nashville, 5,703; Northern Pacific, 17,405; Northern preferred, 6,415; New England, 28,830; Reading. 56,400; St. Paul, 20,813; Union Pacific, 10.210; Western Union, 10.811.

The stock market was feverish and unsettled throughout the day. Yesterday at the opening prices declined fractionally all around in smypathy with lower quotations from London, but subsequently a firmer ensued. Moderate purchases for London account had a tendency to strengthen the market. During the afternoon the belief that gold exports will be resumed on Saturday was strengthened by the withdrawal of $100,000 gold coin from the subtreasury by Heidelbach, Ickelheimer & Co., ostensibly for the purpose of ascertaining the exact weight of the gold now being paid out by the government. The report of Jay Gould's death also gained wide circulation before it could be denied by his sone and a determined attack was made on the stocks generally known as Gould's favorites.

Missouri Pacific broke from 57% to 55% and Western Union from 86% to 84%. The remainder of the list sympathized, but outside of a few stocks the declines were comparatively small. The general market closed form in tone.

Railroad bonds, as a rule, were firm. The sales were $1,231,000. Government bonds have been weaker for the fours. State bonds have been dull. Clos-

ILLEGAL TRADING RUMORED

John Cudaby Reported to Have Been Dipping Heavily in Puts and Calls.

The Great Pork Bear Thought to Have Been Badly Worsted in an Outside Deal That Amounted to 2,000,000 Bushels of Puts.

TRADING AT CHICAGO.

Wheat Sagged Off, While Other Markets Scored Advances,

CHICAGO, Nov. 30 .- Rumor has it that John Cudahy and his followers not only bought a great deal of wheat to-day in the pit, but got, perhaps, 2,000,000 bushels besides on puts they bought yesterday in addition to their direct purchases. As trading in puts and calls is illegal, confirmation of the latter item is not likely to come from the principals. Compared with yesterday's closing wheat is %o lower for December and 404c lower for May, and corn about 'se higher; pork 74c up, lard, .12120 and ribs .0712c lower. The wheat market started at unchanged figures, but with big receipts in the Northwest, weak cables and lower domestic market, with a decided pressure to sell December, the market was quite easy for a time. At the decline, however, there was some pretty lively buying. The fact that December deliveries begin to-morrow made very many anxious to get out of that month. This caused unusual selling pressure of a scattering character. The receipts at Minneapolis and Duluth were 1.026 cars, against 832 cars for the same day last year and 488 cars two years ago. Bradstreet's available supply showed an increase east of the Rockies of 2,107,000 bushels, but was not a weak factor, as it showed an increase by only 900,000 bushels in all the points outside the official list. About the only item of bull news was the large export clearances. The opening was about & 4c lower, ruled easy, selling off %c or so more, then advanced 4 6 %c, ruled fairly steady, and the closing was about & @ to lower for December delivery and 18@ ac lower for May than yesterday.

In corn there was a good speculative defavorable for the grading, and the selling was somewhat restricted, with the demand fairly active. The decrease in stocks was also a bullish factor. Prices were confined within a range of Sec.

The feature in oats was the heavy exchanging between December and May deliveries at differences varying from 5c to Hog products opened lower on the large receipts of hogs-43,000 head-where 34,000 had been estimated, but there was lively buying at the decline, the Wright and Cudaby party leading in the movement, and there was a sharp advance. Then the re-alizing was very general. And at the close, compared with last night, there was a loss shown of 74 @10c all around.

Freights were slow. Charters to Buffalo were at 24c for wheat and 4c for flaxseed. Estimated receipts for to-morrow were: Wheat, 140 cars; corn, 143 cars; osts, 125 cars; hogs, 36,000 head. The leading futures

Comment on James Whitcomb Riley's Article in the Last Forum. Memphis Appeal-Avalanche. The current issue of the Forum has a paper from the pen of James Whitcomb Riley defending dislect in literature. Inasmuch as Shakspeare, Thackeray, Dickens, Eliot, Scott, Lowell, Page, Craddock, Harris, and indeed nearly all of our best American writers have not hesitated to use dialect, it would seem as if it needed no defense; but dialect writing has been so fearfully abused of late that many persons of culture and intelligence have been heard to cry out against it all. The Northern editers are responsible for much of this, for they condemn Southern writers to the use of the negro dialect, no matter whether those writers have any especial aptitude therefor or not. The Southern writer of short stories can leave his Northern brother far behind. He possesses a finer touch, more warmth and emotion, more piquancy of expression. Given an opportunity he could do capital work in the way of short story writing, and he could hit off the eleverest kind of seciety sketch; but he is not permitted to do this until he has become famous through dia-lect. If he were a second Tennyson or Longfellow, he would have to begin by distorting the English language. The re-sult is that dislect has been greatly abused. The rule to be followed in this matter, according to our judgment, is that no writer should attempt dialect who has not a special aptitude for that kind of writing. There is nothing so offensive as slovenly dialect and wild distortions of language; just as there is nothing more delightful than dialect which is not far-fetched, which is faithful to the truth, and has the genuine ring. As long as Mr. Page is true to life, he might go on writing dialect forever; and Mr. Kiley's portrayal of the Hoosier is so fine and free that we can never have too much of so good a thing. These writers need no detense, but against the mexcusable horde of dialect mutilators who annoy a defenseless public literature is sadly in need of a Mckiniey bill. Jones Contemplates Going Fishing. New York Recorder. Sixty thousand barrels of whisky have been sold in one lot in Louisville. The Democratic victory is indeed booming bus- THE -

INDIANAPOLIS JOURNAL

Daily, Sunday and Weekly.

Since the Journal reduced its price from 25 to 15 ants a week, it has greatly extend ts circulation er of people reaching a large 1 hitherto unable t afford the luxury of a first-class daily paper. Re ports from agents and subscriber indicate the result which was to be expected, namely, that what was first regarded as a luxury has become a necessity, and that the new readers not only remain, but their list is constantly increasing. It is the purpose of the Journal to make itself even more indispensable to its patrons, new and old, and to still further widen its field. To this end it will not only endeavor to maintain the characteristics which have established its reputation as by far the best newspaper in Indiana, but will add such new leatures and improvements from time to time as are in accord with journalistic progress and that may tend to the advantage of its readers. It will, for example, give increased attention to State and local interests. What Indianians want is a paper in which Indiana affairs are given especial prominence and importance. This want the Journal has always supplied as no other paper published outside or inside the State is able to do; but the rapidly-developing industries and business and social enterprises of the community call for additional consideration and space. With this in view its corps of correspondents has been increased until it has a representative in nearly every town in the State. Special traveling correspondents will visit the news centers of the State at frequent intervals, thus insuring the "writeup" of every important event or matter of general interest.

Being published in the geographical center of Indiana the Journal is afforded unusual facilities for securing news promptly, and, what is of even greater consequence, is able to reach its subscribers without delay. The running of morning trains from Indianapolis is very favorable to the early distribution of papers sent by ail or express, and in most town within a radius of a hundred miles ournals are delivered as early as in the city where they are printed. In the more remote counties there is but little loss of time in transportation. The Journal is the paper for Indianians and particularly for Indiana Republicans. Although the campaign is ended, the coming session of Congress and subsequent change of administration involve political problems and proceedings likely to be of the most direct personal concern to every farmer and business man in the State. All such matters will be set forth in detail, the Journal's Washington correspondent being instructed to give especial attention to everything having a possible bearing on Indiana in-

But though the Journal is Republican in politics it is non-partisan in the publication of news. Its constant endeavor is to secure facts unbiased by prejudice and to make its columns trustworthy records of each day's happenings. A large editorial force supplements the work of the press associations and the correspondents, and furnishes care-303.00 ful supervision for each department.

> The Sunday Journal has a wellestablished literary character superior to that of any Western paper. It is not defaced by "plate matter" nor filled with a heterogeneous mass of syndicate literature, but its contributions and miscellany are chosen with a view to their special fitness and adaptability to the tastes of the readers. The reading matter in any given number of the Sunday Journal is equal in quantity and is not inferior in quality to that found in the leading magazines. As an educational adjunct and a source of entertainment the Sunday Journal is indispensable in every well-regulated family. The Weekly Journal, at $1 per year, contains more reading matter than can be obtained for the money in any other shape. It is carefully edited and offers the news of the week in condensed shape and a variety of miscellany, agricultural and household literature that render it one of the best investments that any family can make. Try it and see. It has a large circulation in this and other States and agents find it an easy matter to secure large lists of subscribers. Special inducements offered to agents. Circulars sent on application.
